

PhiloTorah This 'n That

FRI, R"Ch Marcheshvan 5785, November 1st - Longtime no added to this file.

This is a super-apology for the incompleteness of the website over the past many weeks.

The business of the Tishrei Yamim Tovim is obviously part of it. And a big part of it was our recent move to a new home - still on Mekor Chayim in Jerusalem. We moved at the beginning of September and there are still boxes and boxes to sort out.

This week (Parshat No'ach), the site is not completely up to date, but pretty much so.

Chodesh Tov and Shabbat Shalom.

(The reason I put Rosh Chodesh before Shabbat is that it is already Rosh Chodesh as I write these words, but not yet Shabbat.)

Oh, almost forgot. Big apology for the delay with the year's calendar and with the year's Rosh Chodesh benching files. New computer with programs that did not transfer well from the old one are part of the delay. So is the hectic time we've had these last few months. Still working on those files.
