

PhiloTorah This 'n That

FRI, 5 Kislev 5785, December 6th -

Longtime no update to this file.

The recent features added to PhiloTorah are the ParshaPlates column, which consists of a recipe for a Parsha-related food to satisfy your palates and to stimulate a review of the weekly sedra at your Shabbat Table.

And, we have revived an old feature from Torah Tidbits - a sample of sayings from A Candle by Day by Rabbi Shraga Silverstein z"l. Way back when, We were able to discuss his book with him. Alas, he passed away in 2014.

A Candle by Day contains over 3000 musar-oriented sayings.

Aside from this and other books he authored, he also translated a treasure trove of important s'farim, making them available to the English-speaking community.

They include Shmirat HaLashon of the Chofetz Chayim, Orchos Tzadikim, The Gates of Repentance: Sha'arei Teshuva, Mesillat Yesharim, The Essential Torah Temima, The Rashi Chumash, Sefer HaMitzvot of the Rambam - and others.

Just to remind you - PhiloTorah gets uploaded piece by piece, usually from Motza'ei Shabbat through to Thursday (hopefully) or Friday (like this week), so keep checking throughout the week for the latest updates.
